

TABLE OF CONTENTS

About the Author	iii
Acknowledgements	v
Introduction	vii
List of Figures	xv
CHAPTER 1: ABOUT THE LAW AND INCIDENT INVESTIGATIONS	1
1.1 The Relevance of Canadian OH&S Law and Incident Investigation in Canada	1
a. Immediate Action after an Incident Happens	1
b. Incident Reporting and the Law	2
c. Incident Investigation and the Law	12
1.2 Incident Investigation Requirements in the United States	22
a. OSH Standards — Industry Coverage	22
b. Federal OSH Act and State OSH Programs	23
c. Overview of OSHA Incident Reporting and Investigating Requirements	24
CHAPTER 2: A FRAMEWORK FOR EFFECTIVE INVESTIGATIONS IN THE WORKPLACE	27
2.1. So Why do Incidents Happen?	27
a. Defining Incidents	27
2.2 The ‘Causes’ of Incidents	30
a. Single Cause Theories	30
2.3 Modern Approaches to Incident Investigation	32
2.4 The Significance of the CSA Standard on Incident Information	35
2.5 So What Exactly is The System of Work?	37
2.6 Prevention-Focussed Investigations	39
2.7 Using this Guide	42
CHAPTER 3: INCIDENT INVESTIGATION PROGRAM ELEMENTS	45
3.1 Setting Objectives for Incident Investigations	45

3.2	Effective Investigation Starts with Planning	46
3.3	Preparing for a Quick Response	49
3.4	Who Should Investigate Incidents?	49
CHAPTER 4: A PROCESS FOR EFFECTIVE INCIDENT INVESTIGATION
	CHAPTER 4: A PROCESS FOR EFFECTIVE INCIDENT INVESTIGATION	51
4.1	Incident Investigation Process	51
4.2	Collecting Information	52
a.	Critical Information	52
b.	Background Information for the Investigators	53
c.	Basic Information about the Injury/Incident	53
d.	Asking Why	53
4.3	Ways and Means of Collecting Information	56
4.4	Interviewing Witnesses is Not so Simple	56
4.5	Analyzing Information	58
a.	Incident Analysis Tools	59
4.6	Determining Corrective Action and Making Recommendations	64
4.7	Communication, Implementation and Follow-up	67
CHAPTER 5: TRAINING RESOURCES
	CHAPTER 5: TRAINING RESOURCES	69
5.1	Suggested Seminar Outline and Training Objectives	69
a.	Case Study Exercise 1	70
b.	Case Study Exercise 2	72
c.	Case Study Exercise 3	77
APPENDIX — Incident Investigation Form
	APPENDIX — Incident Investigation Form	85
	Part A: Information about the Incident and the Injury	85
	Part B: Incident Information and Analysis	87
	Part C: Sample Forms for Summarizing Recommendations and for Implementation Follow-up	96
	References	99
	Index	101