

CONTENTS

Dedication	iii
Preface	v
About the authors	vii
List of chapters	ix
Table of cases	xxix
 Chapter 1 Income Tax Law
1.1 Introduction	2
1.2 Roles of the income tax	4
(a) Revenue to finance public spending	4
(b) Redistribution of income	4
(c) Regulation of private activity	5
1.3 Income tax law	5
(a) The Income Tax Act	5
(i) History	5
(ii) Current structure	6
(iii) Legislative process	8
(b) Income tax application rules	10
(c) Income tax regulations	10
(d) Tax treaties	10
(e) Case law	12
(f) Provincial income tax statutes	12
(g) Private law	13
(h) Administrative publications	13
(i) General information and interpretative guidance	13
(ii) Advance rulings	15
1.4 Interpreting the Act	16
(a) Statutory interpretation	16
(b) Statutory language	17
(c) Interpretation tips	18
1.5 Structure of the income tax system	19
(a) Liability for tax	20
(i) Person	20
(ii) Residence	20
(b) Tax base	21
(i) Concept of income	21
(ii) Measurement of income	21

CONTENTS

(iii)	Assignment of income	22
(c)	Timing and accounting period	22
(i)	Taxation year	22
(ii)	Income fluctuation	22
(d)	Tax payable	23
(i)	Rates	23
(ii)	Credits	24
(iii)	Computation of tax liability	24
(iv)	Alternative minimum tax	26
(e)	Tax administration	26
(i)	The Canada Revenue Agency	26
(ii)	The self-assessment system	27
(iii)	Resolution of tax disputes	27
1.6	Income tax terminology and concepts	28
(a)	Terminology	28
(i)	Realization and recognition	28
(ii)	Cost and expense	28
(iii)	Business entities	29
(b)	Characterization	29
(c)	Timing	31
(d)	Time value of money	31
(e)	Tax deferral	33
(f)	Tax minimization	34
Chapter 2 History and Policy
2.1	Introduction	38
2.2	History	38
(a)	Pre-1917	38
(b)	1917 to 1971	40
(c)	Tax reform of 1971 and the Carter Report	40
(i)	The Carter Report	40
(ii)	Major changes	41
(d)	Introduction of indexing and the MacEachen budget	42
(e)	Tax reform of 1988	43
(f)	Post-1988 reforms	44
(g)	Federal-provincial relations	46
2.3	Why does tax policy matter?	46
2.4	Policy objectives	47
(a)	Traditional approach	47
(b)	Equity	48
(i)	Benefit principle	48
(ii)	Ability to pay principle	49
(c)	Neutrality	51

CONTENTS

(d) Simplicity	52
2.5 Tax unit	53
(a) “Person” as tax unit	53
(b) Equity between families	54
(c) Impact on household labour and employment	56
(d) Equity between families and unattached individuals	58
(e) Corporations and trusts as taxpayers	58
2.6 Tax rates for individuals	59
(a) Graduated rates	59
(i) Rates and brackets	59
(ii) Effect on incentives and tax avoidance	60
(iii) Effect on redistribution	61
(b) Flat rate	62
(c) Dual rates	63
2.7 Tax expenditures	64
(a) Concept	64
(b) Evaluative criteria	65
(i) Justifications	65
(ii) Estimating the cost	68
(iii) Effectiveness	71
(iv) Distributional effect	72
2.8 Tax policy in a globalizing economy	72
Chapter 3 Residence
3.1 Section 2	75
(a) Technical design	75
(i) Legislative scheme for taxing residents	76
(ii) Legislative scheme for taxing non-residents	76
(b) Purpose and rationale	77
(i) Theoretical rationale	77
(ii) Social and economic ties with Canada	78
3.2 Residence of individuals	79
(a) Common law residence	79
(b) Ordinarily resident	83
(c) Sojourner	85
3.3 Residence of corporations	86
(a) Common law residence	86
(b) Statutory definition	88
3.4 Residence of trusts	88
3.5 Change in residence status	91
(a) Part-year residents	92
(b) Deemed dispositions	92
3.6 Dual residency	93

CONTENTS

3.7	Provincial residence	94
Chapter 4 Income
4.1	Section 3	96
	(a) Defining the tax base	96
	(b) Purpose and rationale	98
	(i) Comprehensive income and ability to pay	98
	(ii) Net income	99
	(iii) Realization and attribution of income	100
4.2	Concept of income	101
	(a) General meaning	101
	(i) "Income"	101
	(ii) Legal meaning	102
	(iii) Income versus capital	102
	(b) Economic concept	103
	(i) Haig-Simons theory	103
	(ii) Implications for tax law	104
	(c) Carter Commission's "comprehensive tax base"	105
	(i) Comprehensive tax base	105
	(ii) Taxation of capital gains	105
4.3	Income from a "source"	107
	(a) Source theory	107
	(b) Characteristics of source	107
	(c) Enumerated sources	108
	(d) Unenumerated sources	109
	(e) Illegal source	111
4.4	Characterization of selected receipts	112
	(a) Overview	112
	(b) Gifts	112
	(i) Personal gifts and inheritances	112
	(ii) Commercial gifts	114
	(iii) Gift of property	115
	(c) Windfalls	115
	(d) Damages and settlements	116
	(i) The "surrogatum" principle	116
	(ii) Damages for personal injury	117
	(iii) Punitive damages	118
4.5	Imputed income	119
	(a) Concept	119
	(b) Policy implications	119
	(i) Owner-occupied home	119
	(ii) Unpaid housework	120
4.6	Statutory inclusions and exclusions	121

CONTENTS

(a)	Partial inclusion of capital gains	121
(b)	Other income	122
(c)	Exclusions	122
(i)	Indigenous income	122
(ii)	Miscellaneous items	124
(iii)	Income of tax-exempt organizations	124

Chapter 5 Employment Income

5.1	Legislative scheme	126
(a)	Technical design	126
(b)	Purpose and rationale	127
(i)	Tax revenue and base protection	127
(ii)	Equity	128
(iii)	Administrative efficiency	129
(iv)	Social policy	130
5.2	Characterization of “employment”	130
(a)	Statutory guidance	130
(b)	Common law	131
(c)	Control	132
(d)	Worker’s own account	133
(e)	Contract	134
5.3	Timing	135
(a)	Cash method	135
(b)	Meaning of “receipt”	135
5.4	Salary, wages and other remuneration	137
(a)	Salary and wages	137
(b)	Other remuneration	137
5.5	Benefits	138
(a)	Paragraph 6(1)(a)	138
(b)	“Benefit” as any economic advantage or material acquisition	139
(c)	Relationship to employment	141
(d)	Valuation	143
(e)	“Received” or “enjoyed”	144
5.6	Specific fringe benefits	145
(a)	Overview	145
(b)	Allowances	145
(c)	Automobiles	146
(d)	Loans	148
(e)	Relocation housing benefits	148
(i)	Housing loss	149
(ii)	Housing subsidies	150
5.7	Employee stock options	151
(a)	Nature and purpose of section 7	151

CONTENTS

(b)	Scope of section 7	153
(c)	Acquisition of securities	154
(i)	Amount of taxable benefit	154
(ii)	Timing of recognition	154
(iii)	Adjusting the cost of shares	155
(d)	Transfer or disposition of option rights	156
(e)	Capital gains-like treatment	156
5.8	Deductions	157
(a)	Deductions denied	157
(b)	Deductions permitted	158
(c)	Loss from employment	159
Chapter 6 Business and Property Income: Profit
6.1	Section 9	162
(a)	Pivotal provision	162
(b)	Purpose and rationale	163
6.2	“Business”	164
(a)	Statutory guidance	164
(b)	Organized activity	165
(c)	“Pursuit of profit”	166
(i)	Raison d’être of business	166
(ii)	“Reasonable expectation of profit” not required	166
(iii)	Personal endeavours	168
(iv)	Risk of loss	169
(v)	Employment distinguished	171
(d)	“Adventure or concern in the nature of trade”	171
6.3	“Property”	171
(a)	Broad meaning	171
(b)	Property income distinguished from business income	172
(i)	Relevance of the distinction	172
(ii)	Level of activity test	173
6.4	“Profit”	174
(a)	Net concept	174
(b)	Question of law	175
(c)	Relevance of accounting principles	176
6.5	Computation of profit for the year	177
(a)	Annual accounting requirement	177
(b)	Financial accounting as starting point	178
(c)	Methods of accounting	179
(i)	Cash method	179
(ii)	Accrual method	180
(d)	Timing principles	182
(i)	Matching principle	182

CONTENTS

(ii) Realization principle	183
6.6 “Loss for the year”	184
(a) Policy concerns about losses	184
(b) Section 9(2)	185
(c) Personal or hobby losses	186
(d) Farm losses	186
Chapter 7 Business and Property Income: Inclusions
7.1 Legislative scheme	190
(a) Technical design	190
(b) Purpose and rationale	190
7.2 Characterization of incoming amounts	192
(a) Revenue versus capital receipts	192
(i) Legal question	192
(ii) Principles of characterization	193
(b) Different types of revenue	195
7.3 Timing of recognition of revenue	195
(a) Overview	195
(b) The realization principle	197
(c) “Received” or cash basis	198
(i) Relevance	198
(ii) “Amount received”	199
(d) “Receivable” basis	200
(i) Paragraph 12(1)(b)	200
(ii) “Receivable”	201
(e) “Accrual” basis	202
7.4 Sale of property	203
(a) “Property sold in the course of a business”	203
(b) “Amount receivable”	204
7.5 Services	206
(a) “Services rendered in the course of business”	206
(b) “Amount receivable”	206
7.6 Dividends	208
7.7 Rent and royalties	209
(a) “Payments based on production or use”	209
(i) Nature of rent or royalty	209
(ii) Sales distinguished	210
(b) Timing of inclusion	211
7.8 Interest	212
(a) Nature of interest	212
(b) Payments in lieu of interest	213
(c) Blended payments	214
(d) Discounts, bonuses and premiums	215

CONTENTS

(e)	Timing methods	216
(i)	“Received” or “receivable”	216
(ii)	Annual accrual	217
7.9	Mark-to-market rule for financial institutions	218
Chapter 8 Business and Property Income: Deductions
8.1	Legislative scheme	220
(a)	Technical design	220
(b)	Purpose and rationale	221
(i)	Providing certainty and predictability	221
(ii)	Measuring profit accurately	222
8.2	Characterization of outlays and expenses	222
(a)	Current versus capital expenditures	222
(b)	Running expenses	223
8.3	General purpose test	224
(a)	Income-earning purpose	224
(b)	Mixed purposes	225
8.4	Personal and living expenses	225
(a)	Personal or business	225
(i)	Distinguishing factors	225
(ii)	Everyday living expenses	227
(iii)	Expenses enabling taxpayers to work	227
(iv)	Expenses of business	228
(b)	Travel expenses	229
8.5	Business expenses subject to statutory limitations	229
(a)	Policy concerns	229
(b)	Entertainment expenses	230
(c)	Home office expenses	231
(d)	Cost of illegal or unethical activities	232
(i)	Illegal payments and illegal businesses	232
(ii)	Fines and penalties	233
(iii)	Damages	234
8.6	“Reasonable” requirement	235
(a)	Quantitative limitation	235
(b)	Unreasonable amount attributable to personal elements	235
(c)	Unreasonable amount in non-arm’s-length payments	236
8.7	Timing of deductions	237
(a)	Importance of timing	237
(b)	Basic rule: when an expense is incurred (payable)	238
(c)	Contingent liability or amount	240
(d)	Reserves	241
(i)	Timing relief	241
(ii)	Doubtful debts and bad debts	241

CONTENTS

	(iii) Deferred payments	243
	(iv) Unearned amounts	244
	(e) Prepaid expenses	245
8.8	Inventory	246
	(a) Notion of “inventory”	246
	(b) Timing of deduction	246
	(c) Cost of goods sold	247
	(i) Valuation methods	248
	(ii) Tracing methods	250
8.9	Interest expense	251
	(a) Paragraph 20(1)(c)	251
	(b) “Interest”	252
	(c) Purpose test	253
	(d) Tracing the use of borrowed money	254
	(i) Importance of tracing	254
	(ii) Current use	256
	(iii) Direct use	257
Chapter 9 Business and Property Income: Capital Expenditures
9.1	Legislative scheme	260
	(a) Technical design	261
	(b) Policy and rationale	262
9.2	“Capital expenditure”	262
	(a) Enduring benefit test	262
	(b) Repair of tangible assets	266
	(c) Protection of intangible assets	267
	(d) Goodwill	269
9.3	Capital cost of depreciable property	270
	(a) Capital cost allowance system	270
	(b) Depreciable property	270
	(c) Capital cost	271
	(d) Undepreciated capital cost (UCC)	273
	(e) Proceeds of disposition	275
	(f) Recapture or terminal loss	276
	(i) Recapture	276
	(ii) Terminal loss	277
	(iii) Example	277
	(g) Timing rules	278
	(i) Time of acquisition and available for use	278
	(ii) Recognition of proceeds of disposition	278
	(iii) Half-year rule	279
	(h) Limitations on CCA deductions	281
	(i) Rental property	281

CONTENTS

(ii) Leasing property	282
9.4 Expenditure on intangible assets	283
Chapter 10 Capital Gains
10.1 Legislative scheme	286
(a) Distinct scheme	286
(b) Technical design	287
(c) Purpose and rationale	289
(i) Equity	289
(ii) Encouraging investment and entrepreneurship	291
(iii) Achieving social and economic goals	292
(iv) Administrative efficiency	292
10.2 “Capital gain”	293
(a) Capital or income	293
(b) Trading or investing	294
(c) Adventure or concern in the nature of trade	295
(i) Isolated transaction	295
(ii) Intention on acquisition	296
(iii) Secondary intention	298
(d) Foreign exchange	300
(e) Election regarding Canadian securities	301
10.3 “Disposition”	302
(a) The realization principle	302
(b) Meaning of “disposition”	302
(c) Timing of disposition	303
(d) Deemed dispositions	304
(i) Rationale for the deeming rules	304
(ii) Fair market value	304
(iii) Change of use	305
(iv) “Crystallization” of accrued gains or losses	306
(v) Departure from Canada	306
(vi) Death of taxpayer and inter vivos gift	306
(vii) Every 21st year of personal trusts	308
10.4 Computation of gain or loss	308
(a) Basic method	308
(i) “Proceeds of disposition”	309
(ii) “Adjusted cost base”	309
(b) Reserve for deferred payments	310
(c) Special computation rules	312
(i) De minimus rule for personal-use property	312
(ii) Deemed fair market value rule	313
(iii) Transfers with non-arm’s-length persons	313
(iv) Cost-basis transfers	315

CONTENTS

(A)	Rollovers for transfers to a spouse or common-law partner	316
(B)	Rollovers for transfers to child	317
(C)	Rollovers regarding corporate transactions	317
(d)	Principal residence exemption	318
(i)	Tax subsidy to home ownership	318
(ii)	Resident taxpayers	319
(iii)	“Housing unit”	319
(iv)	“Principal residence” designation	320
(v)	Amount of exempt gain	323
(e)	Special loss limitation rules	325
(i)	Superficial losses	325
(ii)	Personal-use property losses	326
(iii)	Listed personal property losses	326
10.5	Taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses	327
(a)	General inclusion rate	327
(b)	Special “exemptions” for taxable capital gains	327
(i)	Lifetime capital gains exemption	327
(ii)	Charitable donations	328
(c)	Allowable business investment losses	328

Chapter 11 Other Income and Deductions

11.1	Legislative scheme	332
(a)	Technical design	332
(i)	Inclusions in income	332
(ii)	Deductions	333
(b)	Policy objectives	334
11.2	Public pensions	334
11.3	Tax-assisted private pension plans	335
(a)	Types of plans	335
(b)	Tax assistance to retirement savings	336
(i)	Benefit of tax deferral	336
(ii)	Policy implications	338
(iii)	Design objectives	339
(c)	Employer-sponsored plans	341
(i)	Registered pension plans (RPPs)	341
(ii)	Deferred profit sharing plans (DPSPs)	343
(d)	Registered retirement savings plans (RRSPs)	343
(i)	Definition of RRSP	343
(ii)	Contributions based on earned income	344
(iii)	Withdrawals	346
(iv)	RRSP annuities	347
(v)	Registered retirement income funds (RRIFs)	347

CONTENTS

(vi) Tax consequences on death	348
(e) Direct transfers to RPPs, RRSPs and DPSPs	349
11.4 Tax-assisted savings plans	349
(a) Tax-free savings accounts (TFSA)	349
(b) Registered education savings plans (RESPs)	351
(c) Registered disability savings plans (RDSPs)	353
11.5 Employment-related payments	353
(a) Retiring allowance	353
(i) Definition of “retiring allowance”	353
(ii) Special treatment	356
(b) Death benefits	357
11.6 Income separated from capital	357
(a) Annuities	357
(b) Non-compete payments	358
11.7 Miscellaneous amounts	358
(a) Scholarships, bursaries and awards	358
(b) Employment insurance	359
(c) Worker’s compensation and social assistance payments	359
11.8 Spousal and child support	360
(a) Definitions	360
(b) Deduction-inclusion system	362
(c) Policy objectives	363
11.9 Moving expenses	365
(a) Deduction	365
(b) Policy objectives	366
11.10 Child care expenses	366
(a) Deduction	366
(b) Policy objectives	367
Chapter 12 Taxable Income and Tax for Individuals
12.1 Tax for individuals	370
(a) Computation of tax payable	370
(b) Legislative scheme and policy rationale	370
(i) Revenue-raising scheme	370
(ii) Technical design of tax expenditure measures	371
12.2 Net income	372
(a) Role of section 3	372
(b) Aggregation of income from all sources	372
(c) Subdivision e deductions	372
(d) Loss for the year	373
(i) Allowable capital losses	373
(ii) Loss from an office, employment, business or property	373
(iii) Allowable business investment losses (ABILs)	374

CONTENTS

12.3	Taxable income	374
	(a) Purposes of Division C deductions	374
	(b) Loss carryovers	375
	(i) General policy	375
	(ii) Non-capital losses	375
	(iii) Net capital losses	377
	(iv) ABILs	377
	(v) Farm losses and restricted farm losses	378
12.4	Tax rates	378
	(a) Progressive	378
	(b) Indexing for inflation	379
12.5	Tax credits	379
	(a) Nature of tax credits	379
	(b) Technical design	380
	(c) Personal credits	380
	(d) Education-related credits	381
	(e) Charitable gifts credit	383
	(f) Tax credits as relief measures	383
	(i) Medical expenses	383
	(ii) Dividend tax credit	384
	(iii) Foreign tax credit	384
	(g) Behaviour-inducing tax credits	384
	(h) Refundable credits	385
	(i) GST/HST credit	385
	(ii) Refundable medical expense supplement	385
	(iii) Working income tax benefit	385
	(iv) Canada child benefit	386
12.6	The alternative minimum tax	387
	(a) Rationale	387
	(b) Computation of the AMT	387
12.7	Provincial taxes	389
Chapter 13 Income Splitting
13.1	Whose income?	393
13.2	Legislative scheme	394
	(a) Technical rules	394
	(i) Choice of tax unit and rates	394
	(ii) Specific income splitting rules	396
	(iii) Anti-income splitting rules	396
	(b) Policy issues	397
	(i) Progressivity of individual taxation	397
	(ii) Fairness and integrity of the system	397
	(iii) Treatment of the family	398

CONTENTS

13.3	Attribution rules	398
(a)	Nature and scope	398
(i)	Tax “fictions”	398
(ii)	Spouse, common-law partner or related minor	399
(iii)	“Transfer” or “loan” directly or indirectly	400
(iv)	Exception for fair market value transactions	400
(b)	Income from transferred or loaned property	401
(c)	Attribution of capital gains	402
(d)	Transfers or loans to a trust	404
(e)	Transfers or loans to a corporation	404
13.4	Income diversion	405
(a)	Overview	405
(b)	Indirect payment	406
(c)	Assignment of income	408
(d)	Interest-free or low-interest loans	408
13.5	Kiddie tax	409
Chapter 14 Income Earned Through Private Corporations, Partnerships and Trusts
14.1	Taxable persons and their income	414
14.2	Framework for taxing individuals	416
(a)	Individuals as taxpayers	416
(b)	Measuring ability to pay	417
(c)	Income earned through corporations, partnerships and trusts	419
14.3	Private corporations	420
(a)	Nature of corporations	420
(b)	Canadian-controlled private corporations (CCPCs)	420
(c)	“Fiscal unity” of CCPCs and their shareholders	421
(i)	Notion of “fiscal unity”	421
(ii)	Dividends received by individuals	422
(iii)	CCPCs as incorporated employees	424
(iv)	CCPCs earning investment income other than Canadian dividends	426
(v)	Private corporations earning Canadian dividends	427
(iii)	CCPCs earning capital gains	428
(d)	Tax incentives for CCPCs earning active business income	429
14.4	Partnerships	429
(a)	Nature of partnerships	429
(b)	Income or loss from partnerships	430
(c)	Loss of limited partners	431
(d)	Partnership interest	433
14.5	Trusts	433
(a)	Nature of trusts	433
(b)	Personal trusts	434

CONTENTS

(c)	Trusts taxed as “fiscally transparent”	436
(d)	Trusts taxed as individuals	437
(i)	Trusts as fictional individuals	437
(ii)	Tax rates and credits	437
(iii)	Computation and designation of income	438
(iv)	Deemed disposition of property	438
(e)	Income of beneficiaries	439
(i)	Income and character flow-through	439
(ii)	Special rules for capital gains	440
(f)	Income attributed to the settlor	441
Chapter 15 Tax Administration and Ethics
15.1	Legislative scheme	444
(a)	Statutory provisions	444
(b)	Self-assessment	445
(i)	“Voluntary” compliance	445
(ii)	“Carrots”	446
(iii)	“Sticks”	446
(c)	Purpose and rationale	447
15.2	Compliance by taxpayers	447
(a)	Filing of tax returns	447
(b)	Payment of tax	448
(i)	Withholding at source	448
(ii)	Instalments	448
(c)	Interest	449
(d)	Records and books	449
15.3	Assessment and enforcement by the Minister	449
(a)	Notice of assessment	449
(b)	Examination and audit	450
(c)	Reassessment	450
(d)	Collection	451
(e)	Confidentiality of taxpayer information	451
15.4	Dispute resolution	452
(a)	Administrative appeals	452
(b)	Appeal to the Tax Court of Canada	452
(c)	Burden of proof	453
(i)	Taxpayer’s onus	453
(ii)	Shifting of the burden to the Minister	454
(iii)	Criminal offences	455
(d)	Settlement	455
(e)	Remission order	457
(f)	Rectification order	457
15.5	Penalties	458

CONTENTS

(a)	Civil penalties	458
(b)	Criminal prosecutions	459
15.6	Tax practice and ethics	460
(a)	Roles of tax practitioners	460
(b)	Importance of tax ethics	461
15.7	Ethical regulation	462
(a)	Professional regulation	464
(i)	Lawyers	464
(ii)	Accountants	465
(b)	Statutory control	465
(c)	Common law principles	466
(i)	Fiduciary duties	466
(ii)	Loyalty to client and avoidance of conflict of interest	467
(d)	The Strother case	469
(i)	Facts and issues	469
(ii)	Majority judgment	470
(iii)	Dissenting judgment	472
(iv)	Summary of key points	472
15.8	Duty to the client	473
(a)	The lawyer-client relationship	473
(b)	Competence	473
(c)	Honesty and candour	474
(d)	Confidentiality and privilege	474
(e)	Loyalty	475
(f)	Ethical considerations in practice	475
(i)	Compliance	475
(ii)	“Aggressive” tax planning	477
(iii)	Legal opinion	477
(iv)	Advocacy and litigation	478
(v)	Advising multiple clients	479
15.9	Duty to other parties	480
(a)	Tribunal	480
(b)	The CRA	480
(c)	Third parties	480
(d)	Duty to the system	481
Chapter 16 Statutory Interpretation
16.1	Introduction	484
16.2	Overview of statutory interpretation	484
(a)	Scope and responsibility	484
(b)	Evolution of statutory interpretation approaches	488
(i)	Judicial doctrines	488
(ii)	Strict interpretation	489

CONTENTS

(iii)	Modern rule	492
(iv)	Plain meaning	494
(v)	Textual, contextual and purposive interpretation	496
16.3	Interpreting provisions of the ITA	496
(a)	Textual meaning	496
(i)	Statutory meaning	497
(ii)	Ordinary, technical or legal meaning	497
(b)	Context	498
(i)	Statutory context	498
(ii)	Historical context	500
(c)	Legislative purpose and intent	500
(i)	Growing relevance	500
(ii)	Purpose or intent	501
(iii)	Inferences from the text	502
(iv)	Relevance of extrinsic materials	503
(v)	Presumptions	504
(d)	Navigating between text and purpose	505
(i)	Special characteristics of tax statutes	505
(ii)	Common law mentality	507
(iii)	Divergent theories about the role of judges	508
16.4	Characterization of facts	510
(a)	Importance of characterization	510
(b)	Legal rights and obligations created in private law	512
(i)	Form versus substance	512
(ii)	Substance over form	512
(iii)	Legal underpinnings of tax law	513
(c)	Economic substance	516
(i)	No recharacterization of “bona fide” legal relationships	517
(ii)	Potential relevance of economic substance of transactions	518
(d)	Purpose of transactions	519
(i)	Primary purpose	519
(ii)	Step transactions	520
(e)	Sham	522
Chapter 17 Tax Avoidance
17.1	Introduction	528
(a)	Taxpayers’ right to tax planning	529
(b)	Tax avoidance	530
(i)	Distinguished from tax evasion	530
(ii)	Unacceptable tax avoidance	530
(c)	Tax planning	531

CONTENTS

(i)	Goals	531
(ii)	Using a tax relief provision	533
(iii)	Tax-efficient structures	534
(iv)	Tax arbitrage	535
(v)	Tax shelters	537
(vi)	Anti-avoidance karate	537
(d)	Moral implications	537
(e)	Policy implications	539
17.2	Anti-avoidance rules	539
(a)	Identifying unacceptable tax avoidance	539
(b)	Specific anti-avoidance rules	541
(c)	The GAAR	542
(i)	Section 245	542
(ii)	Legislative context and purpose	544
(d)	The role of the GAAR	545
(i)	A “shield”, not “sword”	545
(ii)	Not about “right” or “wrong”	546
(iii)	Not to fill all legislative gaps	547
(e)	Minister’s discretion	548
17.3	Application of the GAAR	549
(a)	Judicial guidelines	549
(i)	Guidelines	549
(ii)	Canada Trustco	550
(iii)	Mathew	552
(iv)	Lipson	555
(v)	Copthorne	557
(b)	Tax benefit	557
(c)	Avoidance transaction	559
(i)	“Transaction” and “series of transactions”	559
(ii)	Result test	561
(iii)	Non-tax purpose test	562
(d)	Abuse or misuse	566
(i)	Analytical approach	566
(ii)	Establishing object, spirit or purpose	567
(iii)	Finding abuse	569
(e)	Reasonable consequences	570
(f)	Developing GAAR jurisprudence	570
Index	575