Global Business Immigration Handbook

This release includes updates to the following chapters: 1-Canada, 2-USA, and 4-Brazil.

The following are highlights of this release:

- 1-Canada has been updated to include new information about work permits, the updated Labour Market Impact Assessment application form and changes to medical examination designations.
- 2-USA includes new information about the Department of Homeland Security's provisional waiver policy, and about derivative benefits for an applicant's spouse/child.
- 4-Brazil includes, among other changes, new subsections about trainee visas and internships, and updated information about labor agreements, business visa validity and work in Brazil, and permanent visas.

Much effort and care go into the process of preparing your supplement. We make every effort to produce a quality manual. With these thoughts in mind, we hope that you are pleased with your copy of Global Business Immigration Handbook. Any comments or suggestions on ways we might improve this publication would be greatly appreciated.
