TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION .................................................. 1

PREFACE: RESEARCH METHODOLOGY AND SUMMARY
OF DATA ......................................................... 15

I. CHOICE OF METHOD ........................................... 15

II. QUALITATIVE INTERVIEW METHODOLOGY ................. 17

III. SPECIFIC ANALYTICAL APPROACH: TESTING THE PLAUSIBILITY OF REFORM HYPOTHESES ......... 21

IV. LIMITATIONS TO PROJECT ............................. 22

CHAPTER I: CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT DYNAMICS:
LAWS AND PROCESSES ......................... 25

I. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT LAWS .................... 25
   A. Similarities in the Class Action Statutes across Jurisdictions ........................................... 26
   B. Statutory Laws Relating to Class Action Settlements in the Four Target Jurisdictions ............... 30
      1. Ontario, British Columbia and Quebec Statutes 31
      2. United States Federal Statutes .................. 35
   C. Court Organisation in the Focus Jurisdictions .... 42

II. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT PROCESSES ............. 43
   A. Types of Class Action Settlements ................. 45
   B. Evidence and Materials Supporting the Proposed Settlement's Fairness ................................ 49

XI
1. Burden of Proof of Settlement Fairness .......................... 49
2. Materials Supporting the Proof of Settlement Fairness .......................... 50

C. Class Action Settlement Hearings .......................... 54
   1. Preliminary Hearing ........................................... 54
   2. Notices of Settlement and Hearing, Objections and Opt-Outs .......................... 57
   3. Fairness Hearing ........................................... 62

D. Class Action Settlement Approval Practices .......................... 64
   1. The Fairness Hearing(s) ........................................... 64
   2. Experts, Witnesses and Oral Arguments ........................................... 69
   3. Court Monitor or Counsel for the Court ........................................... 72
   4. Evidence Necessary to Prove Settlement Fairness .......................... 74
   5. Objections ........................................... 76

E. Consequences of Settlement Approval .......................... 78
   1. Binding Effect ........................................... 78
   2. Involvement in Administration and Implementation of the Settlement ........................................... 79

F. Appeal Rights ........................................... 81

III. REFORMING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT PROCESSES: AN INFORMED, TRANSPARENT AND ECONOMICAL PROCESS OF SETTLEMENT EVALUATION AND APPROVAL ........................................... 83

A. At the Negotiations Stage ........................................... 84
B. At the Settlement Evaluation Stage ........................................... 89
C. At the Settlement Administration and Implementation Stages ........................................... 96
CHAPTER II: CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT ACTORS: WHO PROTECTS WHOM? ................................. 99

I. THE RELATIONSHIPS CREATED BY AND BETWEEN CLASS REPRESENTATIVES, CLASS COUNSEL AND THE ABSENT CLASS MEMBERS ................................................................. 100

A. Who Are the “Absent” Class Members? .................... 100

B. Are Class Counsel Properly Fiduciaries of Absent Class Members? .................. 103

C. The Class Representative: A Real or Fictitious Spokesperson of the Class Members? ............ 109

D. Judicial Perceptions of the Settlement Actors and Related Practices ................................. 115

   1. The Class Action Representative ......................... 116

   2. Class and Defence Counsel and the Absent Class Members ..................... 119

II. THE ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT JUDGES .................. 122

A. The Law Applicable to the Role of Settlement Judges .................................................. 123

B. Judicial Perceptions and Practices Relative to the Role of Settlement Judges .................. 130

   1. The Context: Lack of Adversarial Presentation ............................................. 130

   2. The Role of the Settlement Judge ............................................................ 134

      a) A Complex, Multifaceted Role ..................................................... 134

      b) Judicial Perceptions of the Role of the Settlement Judge: Negotiator, Conciliator, Adjudicator ........................................ 136

      c) Protectors, Fiduciaries, and Ombudsmen ........................................... 138

      d) Inquisitorial Judges ................................................................. 141
   (i) The Weight of Time
   (ii) The Timing of Judicial Involvement with Settlement
   (iii) The Multi-Jurisdictional Context

Conclusion on Settlement Actors and Judges

III. REFORMING THE ROLES OF CLASS REPRESENTATIVES AND CLASS COUNSEL

A. Candid, Honest and Adequate Representatives and Informed Class Members

B. Active, Inquisitorial and Protector Judges
   1. The Active and Involved Judge
   2. The Judge as Protector of the Interests of Class Members, But Also of Defendants and the Public
   3. An Inquisitorial Judge
   4. Different Task, Different Role?

CHAPTER III: CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT FAIRNESS

I. FAIRNESS HEARING DOCTRINE IN NORTH AMERICAN COURTS

A. “Fair, Reasonable and Adequate” or “In the Best Interests of the Class”

B. Substantive and Procedural Inquiries into the Proposed Settlement’s Fairness

C. Scarcity of Settlement Denials

II. RE-CATEGORIZATION OF THE RELEVANT FAIRNESS FACTORS

A. Tracking the Merits of the Proposed Settlement: Factors Useful to the Substantive Fairness Inquiry
1. Intrinsic Factors of Substantive Fairness
   a) Judicial Risk Analysis: Likelihood of Recovery or Likelihood of Success on the Merits Weighed Against Amount and Form of Settlement Relief
   b) Future Expense, Complexity and Likely Duration of the Litigation
2. Extrinsic Factors of Substantive Fairness
   a) Class Reaction: Number and Nature of Objections
   b) Recommendation and Experience of Counsel and Opinion of Interested Persons
B. Procedural Concerns about the Proposed Settlement: Factors Useful to the Procedural Fairness Inquiry
   1. Adequacy of Representation, Good Faith and Absence of Collusion
      a) Negotiation of Counsel Fees in Settlement and Amount of Fees
      b) Discovery Evidence Sufficient for “Effective Representation”
   2. Adequacy of the Notice of Proposed Settlement to Absent Class Members
C. Golden Rules of the Fairness Inquiry
   1. Required “Range of Reasonableness” of the Proposed Settlement
   2. Consideration of the Underlying Objectives of the Class Action Statutes
III. INADEQUACY OF THE CURRENT JUDICIAL REVIEW PROCESS OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS
   A. Strong Public Policy and Judicial Preference for Class Action Settlements
B. Inconsistent Uses and Applications of the Procedural and Substantive Fairness Lines of Inquiry at the Fairness Hearing ........................................ 208

IV. IN SEARCH OF A CLEARER STANDARD OF SETTLEMENT FAIRNESS ........................................ 209

A. Is Fairness Definable in a Class Action Settlement Context? ........................................ 209
   1. Model of Conciliation of Procedural and Substantive Fairness: the Jeffery Case ........ 212
   2. Settlement Fairness in the American Law Institute’s Principles of the Law of Aggregate Litigation ........................................ 215
   3. Settlement Fairness in the Dutch WCAM ........................................ 218

B. Fairness in Non-Class Action Contexts ........................................ 220
   1. Fairness in Contract Law ........................................ 221
   2. Fairness in Procedural (and Class Action) Law ........................................ 222
   3. Fairness in the Approval of Canadian Corporate Arrangements ........................................ 225
      a) The “Deal”: Arrangement versus Class Action Settlement ........................................ 226
      b) Approval Processes and Actors ........................................ 227
      c) Fairness Test and Court Approval of a Plan of Arrangement ........................................ 229
      d) Conclusion ........................................ 235

C. Settlement Fairness Theories ........................................ 236

V. JUDICIAL PRACTICES; OR MAKING SENSE OF “FAIRNESS” ........................................ 240

A. Adequacy of the Settlement Fairness Standard ........................................ 240

B. What Convinces Judges of Settlement Fairness ........................................ 242

C. Presuming Settlement Fairness ........................................ 249
D. Evaluating Settlement Fairness with Settlement Fairness Lists and Fairness Indicators 251

1. Traditional Fairness Factors 252
   a) Adequacy of Notice of Proposed Settlement 252
   b) Adequacy of Representation 253
   c) Likelihood of Recovery or Likelihood of Success on the Merits Weighed against Amount and Form of Relief, and Future Expenses 253
   d) Good Faith of the Parties and Absence of Collusion 254
   e) Discovery Evidence Sufficient for Adequate Representation 254
   f) Reaction of the Class/Number of Objections 255
   g) Recommendation of Counsel 257
   h) Time of Negotiation of Counsel Fees and Amount of the Fees 257
   i) Equal and Fair Treatment of Class Members 258
   j) Other, Non-Traditional Fairness Factors 258

2. Conclusion on Settlement Fairness Factors 263

VI. REFORMING THE STANDARD OF SETTLEMENT FAIRNESS: A FAIR SETTLEMENT IS A SUBSTANTIALLY AND PROCEDURALLY FAIR DEAL REACHED BY ADEQUATE REPRESENTATIVES, CONSISTENTLY WITH CLASS ACTION OBJECTIVES 264

CONCLUSION: THREE HATS, THREE MAJOR REFORM RECOMMENDATIONS; OR THE ROAD TO FAIR PROCESSES AND JUST OUTCOMES IN CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS 275

BIBLIOGRAPHY 287

LEGISLATION 315

TABLE OF CASES 317

INDEX 333