CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION / 1-1

CHAPTER 2 WHAT IS BENCHMARKING?

- 2.1 Introduction / 2-1
- 2.2 Benchmarking Defined / 2-1
- 2.3 Key Benchmarking Concepts / 2-2
 - (1) Benchmarking is About Improving / 2-2
 - (2) Benchmarking is Continuous / 2-2
 - (3) Benchmarking is Systematic / 2-3
 - (4) Benchmarking is About Measurement / 2-3
 - (5) Benchmarking has Multiple Applications / 2-3
 - (6) Benchmarking is About Comparison / 2-4
 - (7) Benchmarking is About Comparing to the “Best” / 2-4
 - (8) Benchmarking Means Looking “Outside the Box” / 2-5
- 2.4 Forms of Benchmarking / 2-6
 - (1) “Book” Benchmarking / 2-6
 - (2) “Bungee” Benchmarking / 2-6
 - (3) “Partner” Benchmarking / 2-6
 - (4) Combining Forms of Benchmarking / 2-6
- 2.5 Misconceptions About Benchmarking / 2-7
 - (1) Measuring Isn’t Benchmarking / 2-7
 - (2) Surveying Isn’t Benchmarking Either / 2-7
 - (3) Benchmarking Means Comparing to the “Best” / 2-7
 - (4) Benchmarking is Prohibitively Expensive / 2-8
 - (5) Benchmarking is Spying / 2-10
 - (6) “Competitive Intelligence” (CI) and Benchmarking / 2-11
 - (7) Benchmarking Damages “Competitive Advantage” / 2-11
 - (8) An Analogous Process is Necessary / 2-12
 - (9) Benchmarking Isn’t for Small Organizations / 2-13
 - (10) Benchmarking Creates “Bad Habits” / 2-13
- 2.6 Why Should We Benchmark? / 2-14
 - (1) Measurement / 2-14
 - (2) Cost Effectiveness / 2-17
 - (3) Proven Solutions / 2-17
 - (4) The Partnering Approach / 2-17
 - (5) The Process Itself / 2-18
- 2.7 A Model of the Benchmarking Process / 2-19
 - (1) The Planning Process / 2-22
 - (2) The Implementation Process / 2-23

CHAPTER 3 THE MODEL – STAGE 1: IDENTIFY BENCHMARKING OBJECTS

- 3.1 Objects for Benchmarking / 3-1
- 3.2 Step 1: Create the Benchmarking Advisory Team / 3-3

BEST PRACTICES: HUMAN RESOURCES BENCHMARKING

- (1) BAT Roles and Responsibilities / 3-3
- (2) The Sponsor / 3-3
- (3) The Expert / 3-4
- (4) The Owner / 3-5
- (5) The Client / 3-5
- (6) The Service Provider / 3-6
- 3.3 Step 2: Create a List of Benchmarking Opportunities / 3-6
 - (1) Speculation / 3-6
 - (2) Data Analysis / 3-9
 - (3) Consultation / 3-9
- 3.4 Step 2: Review for Duplications and “Cause and Effect” / 3-13
- 3.5 Step 3: Review for Strategic Alignment – Identify Benchmarking Priorities / 3-13
- 3.6 Step 4: Turning Priorities into Objects / 3-14.1
 - (1) Difficulty/Impact Analysis / 3-14.1
 - (2) Organizational Competency / 3-17
- 3.7 Step 5: Finalize a Set of Benchmarking Objects / 3-17
- 3.8 Step 6: Finalize the Benchmarking Advisory Team / 3-17
- 3.9 Step 7: Research, Analyse and Profile Each Benchmarking Object / 3-17
 - (1) Type of Object / 3-17
 - (2) Create an Object “Profile” / 3-19

CHAPTER 4 THE MODEL – STAGE 2: PREPARE TO BENCHMARK

- 4.1 Step 1: Assess Preparedness / 4-1
 - (1) Enablers of Benchmarking / 4-1
 - (2) Organizational Commitment / 4-3
 - (3) Object Knowledge / 4-4
 - (4) Technologies / 4-6
 - (5) The Benchmarkers / 4-7
 - (6) Are You Ready? / 4-8
- 4.2 Step 2: Choose an Approach / 4-10
 - (1) Forms of Benchmarking / 4-10
 - (2) Focus of Benchmarking: The “Best” vs. the “Rest” / 4-11
 - (3) The Organization’s Role in Direct Contact Benchmarking / 4-12
- 4.3 Step 3: Get Help (If You Need It and Can Afford It) / 4-12
- 4.4 Step 4: “Tool Up” for Benchmarking / 4-12
 - (1) Getting Commitment / 4-12
 - (2) Improving Object Knowledge / 4-13
 - (3) Enhancing Technology / 4-14
 - (4) Preparing the Benchmarkers / 4-15
 - (5) Setting Goals Early in the Process / 4-16

CHAPTER 5 THE MODEL – STAGE 3: IDENTIFY AND SELECT EXTERNAL BENCHMARKING RESOURCES

- 5.1 Types of Benchmarking Resources / 5-1
 - (1) Organizations to Target for Benchmarking / 5-2
 - (2) Benchmarking Data / 5-2
 - (3) Same Data Source – Multiple Purposes / 5-2

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- 5.2 Step 1: Consult Sources of Benchmarking Information / 5-3
 - (1) Finding Human Resources Practitioners / 5-3
 - (2) Publishing Organizations / 5-4
 - (3) Benchmarking “Authorities” / 5-6
 - (4) Sources Outside Human Resources / 5-8
- 5.3 Conducting Benchmarking Research / 5-8
 - (1) Book Stores / 5-8
 - (2) Direct Contact with the Publisher or Author / 5-8
 - (3) The Internet / 5-9
 - (4) Libraries (Public and Specialty) / 5-9
- 5.4 A Few Words on Published Sources of Data / 5-10
 - (1) “Hard Copy” and Electronic Formats / 5-10
 - (2) Public vs. Private / 5-10
 - (3) Costs / 5-10
- 5.5 Step 2: Organize Preliminary Benchmarking Information / 5-10
- 5.6 Step 3: Select Target Organizations to Approach / 5-11
- 5.7 Sources of Benchmarking Information and Benchmarking Research Alternatives at a Glance / 5-15

CHAPTER 6 THE MODEL – STAGE 4: APPROACH TARGET ORGANIZATIONS AND GAIN ACCEPTANCE

- 6.1 Step 1: Preparing to Approach / 6-1
 - (1) What Will the Target Organization Want? / 6-1
 - (2) What Can Your Organization Provide in Support of the Target Organization’s Need? / 6-2
 - (3) Anticipate the Concerns of the Target Organization / 6-4
 - (4) Prepare a Benchmarking Study Proposal/Agreement / 6-4
- 6.2 Step 2: The Approach / 6-6
 - (1) Who Should Be Contacted? / 6-6
 - (2) How to Make Contact? / 6-6
 - (3) Who Should Make the Contact? / 6-6
 - (4) Tips for Making Contact / 6-7
- 6.3 Step 3: Help Benchmark Organizations to Prepare/ 6-7

CHAPTER 7 THE MODEL – STAGE 5: CREATE THE BENCHMARK ORGANIZATION TEAM

- 7.1 Why a BOT? / 7-1
- 7.2 BOT Mandate and Responsibilities / 7-2
- 7.3 Composition of the BOT / 7-3
- 7.4 Roles on the BOT / 7-3

CHAPTER 8 THE MODEL – STAGE 6A: DESIGN INDICATORS

- 8.1 Roles of the BATS and BOTS in Indicator Design / 8-2
- 8.2 Limitations of Measurement / 8-2
 - (1) Numbers are Susceptible to Manipulation / 8-3
 - (2) Numbers are Quantitative Portrayals of Real World Situations / 8-4

BEST PRACTICES: HUMAN RESOURCES BENCHMARKING

- (3) Numbers are a “Means” not an “End” / 8-4
- 8.3 Indicators Defined / 8-4
- 8.4 Classifying Indicators / 8-5
 - (1) Indicator Design Perspectives (IDP’s) / 8-6
- 8.5 Step 1: The Preparation Phase: Consider Challenges in Measurement and Data Collection/ 8-7
 - (1) How Can the Object Be Measured? / 8-7
 - (2) Is There a Direct Way of Measuring the Object? If Not, Is There an Indirect Way? / 8-12
 - (3) Can an Indicator Be Designed That Is Predictive of the Object’s Behaviour? / 8-15
 - (4) How Can the Indicator Be Aligned with the Strategic Objectives of the Firm? / 8-17
 - (5) Can an Indicator Be Designed That Emphasizes “Success”? / 8-22.2
 - (6) Can an Indicator Be Designed That Encourages a Specific Behaviour? / 8-23
 - (7) Can an Indicator Be Designed That Will Be Suitable for External Use? / 8-23
 - (8) How Many Indicators Are Required or Would Be of Benefit? / 8-25
 - (9) Can a Multi-Purpose Indicator Be Designed? / 8-25
 - (10) Can Accurate Data Realistically Be Collected? What Are the Challenges? / 8-26
 - (11) Can the Data for the Indicator Be Acquired Within an Acceptable Time Frame? / 8-27
 - (12) The Value vs. Simplicity Trade-Off in Indicator Design / 8-27
- 8.6 Step 2: The Design Phase: The T.I.P.S. Model of Indicator Design / 8-28.1
 - (1) Is the Organization Measuring a “Human Resources” Object or a “Human Asset” Object? / 8-28.1
 - (2) What Is Important to the Organization About the Object Being Measured? / 8-33
 - (3) What Perspective Can the Indicator Be Given? / 8-35
 - (4) Who Will Provide the Data? / 8-38
- 8.7 Step 3: The Construction Phase: Concept into Function / 8-40
 - (1) The Composition of Variables / 8-40
 - (2) Describing the Relationship Between Variables / 8-42
 - (3) Ideas for Indicators: The Indicator Banks / 8-43
- 8.8 Step 4: Organizing Your Measurement Program / 8-43
 - (1) HR Functional Set / 8-43
 - (2) HR Effectiveness Set / 8-44
 - (3) “Signal” Indicator Set / 8-44
 - (4) HA Effectiveness Set / 8-44
 - (5) Imperative-based Sets / 8-45
 - (6) Source-based Sets / 8-45
 - (7) Organizational Effectiveness Set / 8-45
 - (8) Intellectual Capital Sets / 8-46
- 8.9 Designing Indicators at a Glance / 8-46

CHAPTER 9 THE MODEL – STAGE 6B: DESIGN QUANTITATIVE DATA COLLECTION METHODOLOGY

- 9.1 Types of Data Collection Exercises in the Quantitative Phase of the Study / 9-2
 - (1) Primary Data Collection Exercise / 9-2
 - (2) Contributory Data Collection Exercises / 9-2
- 9.2 Step 1: Preparation / 9-3

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (1) Review Data Collection Objectives / 9-3
- (2) Consider Potential Sampling Issues / 9-3
- 9.3 Step 2: Select Data Collection Methodology / 9-4
 - (1) Technique / 9-4
 - (2) Medium / 9-6
- 9.4 Step 3: Assign Responsibility for Designing the Q-Tool / 9-6
- 9.5 Step 4: Plan Ahead: Identify “Analysis Dimensions” / 9-7
 - (1) Analysis Dimensions for Organizations / 9-7
 - (2) Analysis Dimensions for Data / 9-9
- 9.6 Step 5: Design the Q-Tool / 9-9
 - (1) Parts of a Survey / 9-10
 - (2) General Design Considerations / 9-11
 - (3) Question Design / 9-12
- 9.7 Step 6: Define the Survey Time Period / 9-18
 - (1) Period Data / 9-18
 - (2) “Snapshot” Data / 9-19
- 9.8 Step 7: Administration Decisions for Data Collection Exercises / 9-19
 - (1) Who Will Administer the Primary Data Collection Exercise and Produce the Report? / 9-20
 - (2) What Deadlines Will Be Imposed for Completing the Data Collection Exercises? / 9-20
 - (3) Who Will Be Responsible for the Contributory Data Collection Exercise at Each Benchmark Organization? / 9-20
 - (4) How Will Confidentiality Concerns of Participant Organizations Be Addressed? / 9-20
- 9.9 Step 8: “Field Testing” the Q-Tool / 9-21

CHAPTER 10 THE MODEL – STAGE 7: CONDUCT QUANTITATIVE DATA COLLECTION EXERCISES

- 10.1 “Baseline” Measures / 10-1
- 10.2 Conducting the Data Collection Exercise / 10-2
 - (1) Prepare the Staff Who Will Collect the Data / 10-2
 - (2) Reduce “Bias” in the Data and Data Collection Process / 10-3
- 10.3 Using Technology to Facilitate Quantitative Data Collection / 10-4

CHAPTER 11 THE MODEL – STAGE 8: COMPILE AND REPORT QUANTITATIVE RESULTS

- 11.1 Compiling Quantitative Results / 11-1
 - (1) Errors in Data Submissions / 11-2
 - (2) Handling “Outliers” / 11-2
- 11.2 Reporting Quantitative Results / 11-2
 - (1) Parts of a Report / 11-2
 - (2) Presenting Summary Data / 11-3
 - (3) Presenting “Raw” Data / 11-19
 - (4) Written Comments / 11-20
 - (5) No Conclusions Please! / 11-20

CHAPTER 12 THE MODEL – STAGE 9: ANALYSE QUANTITATIVE RESULTS AND PLAN ACTIONS

- 12.1 Step 1: “Confirm” the Data / 12-1
- 12.2 Step 2: Locate “Baseline” Performance / 12-2
- 12.3 Step 3: Identifying “Benchmark” Results / 12-4
 - (1) Benchmark Indicators / 12-4
 - (2) Parameter Indicators / 12-4
- 12.4 Step 4: Identify Performance Gaps / 12-5
- 12.5 Step 5: “In-Depth” Statistical Analysis / 12-5
 - (1) Correlation / 12-6
 - (2) Regression Analysis / 12-7
- 12.6 Step 6: Prepare for the Qualitative Phase of the Study / 12-7

CHAPTER 13 THE MODEL – STAGE 10: GATHER QUALITATIVE INFORMATION

- 13.1 Step 1: Verify the “Scope” of the Exercise / 13-1
- 13.2 Step 2: Select Data Collection Methodology / 13-3
 - (1) Background Documentation / 13-3
 - (2) Interviews / 13-3
 - (3) Observation / 13-4
- 13.3 Step 3: “Document” Benchmark Objects / 13-4
 - (1) Flowcharting / 13-4
 - (2) Product and Service Documentation / 13-5
 - (3) Documenting Human Asset Objects / 13-7
- 13.4 Step 4: Compare Benchmark Objects and Analyse Differences / 13-9
 - (1) Process Analysis / 13-9
 - (2) Products and Services / 13-11
- 13.5 Step 5: “Force Field” Analysis - Factors That Create a Climate for Success? / 13-11
 - (1) Commitment / 13-11
 - (2) “Culture” / 13-12
 - (3) Technology / 13-12
 - (4) External Forces / 13-12
- 13.6 Step 6: Consider Supplementary Benchmark Information / 13-13
- 13.7 Step 7: Compile and Organize the Information / 13-13

CHAPTER 14 THE MODEL – STAGE 11: IMPLEMENT THE CHANGE

- 14.1 Prepare a Plan / 14-1
 - (1) Step 1: Finalize Changes to Implement / 14-1
 - (2) Step 2: Consider Resource Requirements / 14-2
 - (3) Step 3: Consider X-Factors / 14-3
 - (4) Step 4: Set Time-Lines / 14-3
 - (5) Step 5: Set Goals / 14-3
 - (6) Step 6: Finalize the Plan / 14-4
 - (7) Step 7: Obtain Approval / 14-5
- 14.2 Implement the Change / 14-5

CHAPTER 15 THE MODEL – STAGE 12: EVALUATE AND CONTINUOUSLY IMPROVE

- 15.1 Evaluate the Effectiveness of the Change / 15-1

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (1) Elements of Evaluation: Stability and Performance / 15-1
- (2) Evaluating Performance / 15-2
- (3) Run Charts: Evaluating Stability and Performance / 15-2
- 15.2 Continuously Improve / 15-4
 - (1) Act on Evaluation Results / 15-4
 - (2) Communicate Your Successes / 15-5
 - (3) Benchmark Continuously / 15-5
- 15.3 Applications for Benchmarking Data / 15-5
 - (1) Reporting Purposes / 15-5
 - (2) Supporting HR quality goals / 15-6
 - (3) Proving/disproving the existence of opportunities / 15-6
 - (4) Demonstrating the success/failure of initiatives / 15-6
 - (5) Illustrating cause/effect relationships / 15-6
 - (6) Impacting adversarial negotiation or settlement opportunities / 15-6
 - (7) Creating business cases and obtaining resources / 15-6
 - (8) Improving measurement systems / 15-6
 - (9) Reinforcing achievements by the HR staff or organization / 15-6

CHAPTER 16 IDEAS FOR CREATING A BENCHMARKING CULTURE IN HR

- 16.1 Prepare for Success / 16-1
- 16.2 Foster a Benchmarking Culture / 16-1
- 16.3 Create Benchmarking Awareness / 16-2
- 16.4 Involve Your Best and Brightest / 16-2
- 16.5 Communicate Your Successes / 16-2
- 16.6 Do It “In-House”! / 16-2
- 16.7 Reward Participants / 16-3
- 16.8 Convince Senior Management / 16-3
- 16.9 Succeed at Benchmarking / 16-3

APPENDIX 1 A BENCHMARKING CODE OF CONDUCT

The Benchmarking Code of Conduct / A1-1

APPENDIX 2 HUMAN RESOURCES INDICATORS

- 1 Staffing/Recruitment Indicators / A2-2
 - (1) Activities of Recruitment Staff / A2-2
 - (2) Advertising Effectiveness / A2-3
 - (3) Approvals / A2-4
 - (4) External Hiring Process / A2-5
 - (5) Internal Staffing / A2-9
 - (6) New Hires / A2-10
 - (7) Offers of Employment / A2-10.1
 - (8) Referral Program-Specific / A2-11
 - (9) Source of Candidates / A2-11
 - (10) Overall Staffing Effectiveness / A2-12

BEST PRACTICES: HUMAN RESOURCES BENCHMARKING

- 2 Orientation Indicators / A2-12
- 3 Compensation Indicators / A2-13
 - (1) Activities of Compensation Staff / A2-13
 - (2) Compensation as an Organizational Expense / A2-14
 - (3) Pay Competitiveness / A2-14.1
 - (4) Salary System Characteristics / A2-14.2
 - (5) Job Descriptions and Job Evaluation / A2-16
- 4 Benefits Indicators / A2-16
 - (1) Benefits as an Organizational Expense / A2-17
 - (2) Benefits Competitiveness / A2-18
 - (3) Benefits Participation and Utilization / A2-18
- 5 HR Call Centre Indicators / A2-18.1
- 6 Employee/Labour Relations Indicators / A2-19
 - (1) Activities of the Employee Relations Staff / A2-19
 - (2) Arbitration / A2-19
 - (3) Counselling/Consulting / A2-20
 - (4) Dispute Resolution Methods / A2-20
 - (5) Grievances/Complaints / A2-21
 - (6) Legal Costs / A2-23
 - (7) Negotiations / A2-24
 - (8) Severance and Wrongful Dismissal Costs / A2-24
- 7 Health and Safety Indicators / A2-25
 - (1) Modified Work and Accommodation / A2-25
 - (2) Workers Compensation / A2-27
 - (3) Joint Health & Safety Committees / A2-29
 - (4) Overall Health and Safety Performance / A2-30.1
- 8 Human Resources Information Systems / A2-30.1
 - (1) Activities of the HRIS Staff / A2-30.1
 - (2) Evaluating the HRIS / A2-30.1
- 9 Training and Development Indicators / A2-30.2
 - (1) Activities of the Training and Development Staff / A2-30.3
 - (2) Scope of Training / A2-30.3
 - (3) Training as an Organizational Expense / A2-32
 - (4) Training Effectiveness / A2-33
- 10 Human Resources as a Function / A2-35
 - (1) HR Administration / A2-35
 - (2) HR Technology / A2-36.1
 - (3) HR Expenditures / A2-36.2
 - (4) HR Performance / A2-36.3
 - (5) HR Staff / A2-40
 - (6) HR Structure and Composition / A2-40

APPENDIX 3 HUMAN ASSET INDICATORS

- 3.1 Alignment / A3-1
 - (1) Quality Initiatives / A3-1
 - (2) Performance Management / A3-1

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (3) Employee Knowledge / A3-2
- (4) Employee Opinion / A3-3
- 3.2 Competence / A3-3
 - (1) Workforce Demographics / A3-3
 - (2) Hire Rates, Turnover and Competence / A3-4
 - (3) Performance / A3-5
 - (4) Training & Development / A3-8
 - (5) Employee Opinion / A3-10
 - (6) Skill Levels / A3-10
- 3.3 Economic / A3-10.1
 - (1) Revenue, Profit and Value-Added / A3-10.1
 - (2) Investment and Return on Investment / A3-10.2
 - (3) Efficiency / A3-10.3
- 3.4 Health and Safety / A3-10.4
 - (1) Employee / Family Assistance Programs / A3-11
 - (2) Long Term Disability / A3-13
 - (3) Safety Incidents / A3-13
 - (4) “Wellness” Programs / A3-14
 - (5) Time Off / A3-14
- 3.5 Management / A3-15
 - (1) Management Structure / A3-15
 - (2) Performance / A3-16
 - (3) Hire Rates and Turnover / A3-18
- 3.6 Satisfaction / A3-18
 - (1) Employee Opinion / A3-18
 - (2) Grievances / A3-19
 - (3) Complaints, Employment / A3-21
 - (4) Complaints, Human Rights / A3-21
 - (5) Turnover / A3-21
- 3.7 Stability / A3-21
 - (1) Workforce Demographics / A3-22
 - (2) Employee Flow / A3-22
 - (3) Internal Hire Rates / A3-24
- 3.8 Utilization / A3-24
 - (1) Absenteeism and Sickness / A3-24
 - (2) Diversity / A3-26
 - (3) Employee Involvement / A3-27
 - (4) Employee Skills / A3-30
 - (5) Internal Staffing Issues / A3-30
 - (6) Teamwork / A3-31
 - (7) Workforce Composition / A3-32
 - (8) Job Structure / A3-33
- 3.9 Innovation / A3-33

APPENDIX 4 SAMPLE INDICATORS FROM THE HRBN ANNUAL BENCHMARKING SURVEY

Indicator #4: Staff/Management Ratios / A4-2

Indicator #5: Average Time to Fill Position with an External Hire / A4-5

Indicator #7: Turnover Rates / A4-6

Indicator #13: Paid Sick Hours per Eligible Employee / A4-8

Indicator #14: Grievance Rate Statistics / A4-9

Indicator #24: HR-Count Indicators / A4-11
