BEST PRACTICES: HEALTH & SAFETY

Dear Subscriber,

We are pleased to send you the 2015 supplement to Best Practices: Health & Safety. Enclosed you will find an updated Introduction, Chapter 2, OH&S Program Elements, with the addition of new Tool, Investigation and Prevention and new section, Effective Return to Work Programs. Chapter 2, OH&S Structures, has been updated with new section, A Culture of Trust, and Chapter 6, Monitoring and Evaluation has a new section added, Research Based Leading Indicators. Also included is a CD-ROM with content of the book available in handy electronic form.

As with the rest of the content in Best Practices: Health & Safety, these new policies and tools have been selected by author Dilys Robertson for their usefulness and their transferability from the original organization to yours.

We hope you find Best Practices: Health & Safety continues to meet your needs.

Carswell and Dilys Robertson invite your organization to participate in the continuous updating of Best Practices: Health & Safety by submitting your own examples of health and safety best practices for consideration. To submit policy samples, contact the author, or to comment on any aspect of the work itself, please contact:
