THE OATLEY-McLEISH GUIDE TO PERSONAL INJURY PRACTICE IN MOTOR VEHICLE CASES

Joseph A. Cescon, Lindsay Charles,
Robert Durante and Troy Lehman

Release 2021-2, December 2021

Publisher's Special Release Note 2021

The pages in this work were reissued in August 2021 and updated to reflect that date in the release line. Please note that we did not review the content on every page of this work in the August 2021 release. We will continue to review and update the content according to the work's publication schedule. This will ensure that subscribers are reading commentary that incorporates developments in the law as soon as possible after they have happened or as the author deems them significant.

Changes to chapter and heading numbering may have occurred. Please refer to the Correlation Table in the front matter if you wish to confirm references.

This service provides the essential step-by-step guidance to effectively manage the complexities of Ontario's no-fault insurance system. There are over one hundred chapters providing everything you need including: interviewing the client; taking control of the case; investigating liability; commencing the action and formulating liability and damages; preparing your client for discovery; the examination for discovery of the plaintiff; preparing for trial; accident benefits in Ontario; negotiation and settlement; and opening and closing statements. Expert tips and techniques help you gain the knowledge and confidence you need to address all your client's personal injury concerns. This service also provides a quantum table which assists in assessing what your claim is worth and easy-to-customize sample letters and forms, case law dealing with the interpretation of the legislation, and appendices.
