NORTH AMERICAN RELOCATION LAW

Benjamin A. Kranc

Release No. 2021-2, November 2021

What's New in this Update:

This release features updates to Chapters 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 10 to 15 and 17, as well as updates to Generally Applicable Forms and the Index.

- COVID has continued to take centre stage as the most significant topic in immigration and related areas. Though the rules have changed and continue to change, the basic idea through mid-2021 has been that discretionary travel is not authorized, and unless a task was deemed 'essential', a 14 day quarantine would be required. In July, that has started to change and as of the time of the preparation of these materials, it was expected that vaccinated travellers could come to Canada, from the United States, starting August 9, 2021 and from the rest of the world, starting September 7, 2021 without the need for quarantine. There are certainly caveats and considerations, but there is light at the end of the tunnel.

- Otherwise, there continue to be changes to work permit related requirements both in terms of COVID related items, and generally, and we have of course provided our updates herein.
